October is Respect Life Month!

This year, we are focusing on St. Joseph, defender of life. His unhesitating adherence to God's will as he faithfully and lovingly protected the Christ Child and the Blessed Mother bears witness to our own call as Christians.

If you or someone you know is suffering after abortion, confidential, non-judgmental help is available from Project Rachel Ministry. Visit the "Find Help" map on HopeAfterAbortion.org to find the nearest diocesan ministry. Spanish speakers may visit EsperanzaPosAborto.org.

to walk as ONE

If you were to judge marriage from television talk shows doling out advice, you would think that success in marriage is a closely guarded secret and very difficult to achieve. Different magazines have featured articles on things every family should and should not do. From parenting advice to ways to improve communication, suggestions range from worth considering to silly nonsense. At times complicated, these lifestyle ideas promise success and perfection to those who take their suggestions to heart. A word to the wise: today's fad is tomorrow's newest mistake. The purpose of these 'discoveries' is to make money and sell books, and not much else.

We have the tools and rules to lead a successful life as spouses and as parents. The Beatitudes, the Works of Mercy and the Golden Rule are all about putting our love to work, and expressing that love by what we say and do. When we see others as God sees them, we will treat them as brothers and sisters who have a right to our respect and concern. The Bible gives us the rules to live by and these rules lead to life, happiness, and success.

Take these things to heart. Practice the virtues of generosity, compassion, and peace-making. Be those who seek justice and mercy and work to achieve them. Look on the needs of others as your own. The author of life has already written the perfect advise. Find it in your heart.

Saint Maria Soledad Torres Acosta

FEAST DAY — OCTOBER 11

As a child in Madrid, Spain, Manuela Torres Acosta reportedly was more intent on getting playmates to pray than to play. In 1851, she and six companions were invited by a Servite priest to provide home care to the sick of his parish. Taking the name Maria Soledad to honor Our Lady of Sorrows and overcoming her fear of nursing, she became a founder of the Handmaids of Mary Serving the Sick. As superior for 35 years, she oversaw the congregation's rapid expansion and battled government opposition; she was canonized in 1970. One of her novices said, "Mother Soledad is like an anvil; she is constantly taking a beating."
